

Journey into the next season of your life

What is your passion?

What purpose does the Lord have for the next season of your life?

Your kingdom experience is what you are wired for! Take an interactive journey and experience the 40+ nonprofits in The Hope Center. Allow yourself to explore and unlock your purpose.

About the Passport to Purpose Program:

- Gain a better understanding of how God uniquely designed you and ways to use your gifts and talents.
- “Test drive” getting to know and work with a number of ministries housed at The Hope Center.

Start your purposeful journey on Tuesday, September 11.

This five-week program will meet every Tuesday from 9:00AM-2:00PM.

This will be a $150 investment into your next season of life.

September 18

Review your StrengthsFinder results

Review participants' results and how their talents will incorporate with each ministry

Participant will spend from 10 – 1:00 with a ministry and then we will provide lunch and a time of discussion reviewing your experience in the ministry. You will also select the nonprofit you will be with for the following session.

This format will be repeated for Sept. 25 and Oct. 2.

October 9

Corporate time of prayer with THC ministry representatives over their prayer requests. One ministry will be highlighted and share a devotion.

The Master's Program for Women curriculum

Participants will spend time with a ministry using their gifts. Lunch – debrief, review and course evaluation.
